Suicide of a Polish Count. CHICAGO, July 31.—August W. Kenkel, the Polish Count who shot himself Sunday night, died to-day at Michael Reese Hos-pital. Kunkel's real name was Algernon Wilhelm Djialinski, a count of Poland. He was born in Memel, now a part of Prussia, in 1823. An ardent patriot, he aided his country in its war for independence. He was selected for the most important of duties and entered Russia as a Polish spy. After the subjugation of his country, a price of 50,000 roubles was placed upon Kenkel's head by Russia, but he escaped across the borders of Poland and came to cross the borders c. KISSES FOR DURRANT.

Women Try to Embrace the San Francisco Criminal.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31 .- Two addi tional jurors were secured to-day to try Theodore Durrant for the murder of Blanche Lamont, The of seventy-five names having for a venire of 150 new names. The additional jurors secured to-day are M. R. Dempster, a commission merchant, and Nathan Crocker, contractor. Four jurers in all have so far been secured. Counsel for both the prosecution and defense are pleased at the character of men thus far chosen to try the case. Instead of being driven, as heretofore, from the county jail to the city hall in the sheriff's private buggy, Durrant was to-day conveyed in the ordinary prison van with less notable He still continues to be the subject of much hero worship. As he was leaving the court room a well-dressed and handsome woman rushed toward him with endearing words, and attempted to embrace him. The sheriff protected Durrant from this ad-mirer, and also refuses to deliver the quantities of flowers sent to his cell by strang-ers. A Chicago woman sends him a bunch of kisses in a scented letter, and hundreds of similar messages come to him every day.

The chase for the woman who, it is alleged, was invited into Emanuel Church by Durrant, and to whom he subsequently appeared nude, still continues. The story now is to the effect that Durrant met the lady under an arrangement to take her to a party or social gathering. The two met in accordance with the agreement, and as they approached the church Durrant sul-denly thought of the books he needed at the meeting. He induced his companion to enter the church with him, and left her in a side room while he disappeared into the library. Soon after, the story goes, he returned minus his clothes. The lady, though half fainting from fright, kept her Movements of Steamers. presence of mind, and by a stratagem escaped without her hat and gloves. BREAD FAMINE IN MEXICO. During the Bakers' Strike People

Have Taken to Eating Cake.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 31.-The strike of the journeymen bakers is increasing in preportions and to-day, in many quarters of the city, families are without bread, and have substituted tortillas, which have risen in price. The bakers allege the present system of paying them in advance for fifteen days and making them practically prisoners inside the bakeries during that period has become insupportable. They demand to be allowed to sleep at their homes. The master bakers say they cannot trust their men, who get drunk and are useless, if allowed to leave the bakerles. Some arrests have been made on account of disorderly conduct among groups of strikers. It is feared the strike may include the entire city, when no bread can be had. The government continues to make experiments with the Norwegian Krag-Jorgensen rifle and Ridriquez ball grenades.

Twenty young prisoners escaped from Belem prison by means of ropes, scaling the lofty wall. A number of the prison officials have been placed under arrest for connivance nivance.

Counsel has been appointed by defendants in the case against the participants in the Verastegui-Romero duel.

The police have seized three daily issues of the Democrat, a newspaper, on the ground of publication of articles offensive to public morality. Editorial attacks on editors of rival papers are also alleged to have gone beyond the grounds of decency. The offense is aggravated by the publication of the matter in black-face type.

President Diaz, members of the Cabinet, foreign ministers and others took a special train to visit the drainage works.

FIGHT WITH ROBBERS

BUILDING IN CLEVELAND.

Two Men Attempt to Rob the Bartholomew Brewing Company's Safe in Daylight.

CLEVELAND, O., July 31,-Two men made a bold attempt to rob the safe of the Bartholomew Brewing Company, on Michigan street, to-day. One of them engaged the bookkeeper in conversation, while the other quietly slipped into a rear office and, when discovered by the bookkeeper, was at work on the safe. An alarm was mmediately raised and both of the thieves started down the street with a crowd behind them yelling "stop, thief." A policeman soon overtook one of the men, who drew a revolver and, after a short struggle, broke away with a pair of handcuffs dangling to one of his wrists. The fugitive ran a short distance and then turned and deliberately fired several shots at the policeman, who promptly returned the fire, none of the shots hitting anyone. The thief again ran and dashed into the buildpany and up several flights of stairs. The thief reached the fourth floor and then was cornered at a window by several of the employes. Then a fight took place. The felemployes. Then a fight took place. The fellow was depretate. He knocked down several men an 'hrew three out of the window. There a roof of a lower building just below the window and the men, falling upon this, escapeu injury.

A policeman arrived at this point and, with a blow of his flat, laid the fellow low.

The handeness were quickly snapped into The handcuffs were quickly snapped into place and the policemen then hustled their prisoner to the central station. He gave the name of Joseph Rawson, and said he was twenty-eight years old. The second thief was not captured.

"SUNBEAM" STILL MISSING.

No Trace of the Yacht with Lord Haddo and Party on Board.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 31.-The yacht Hawthorne, owned by Daniel McConnell of Chicago, arrived within the breakwater this evening from Green Bay, which port the schooner cleared Monday afternoon She encountered the big blow off Mani-towoc Monday night, but was fifteen miles off shore and weathered it all night. The crew saw nothing of the Canadian yacht, Sunbeam, which left Sturgeon bay Monday in the afternoon, with Lord Cecil Haddo and party on board. The Hawthorne is bound for Chicago to take part in the regatta in which the Sunbeam is entered. Absolutely nothing has been heard from the latter since Monday night, and although she has not been given up for lost, considerable concern is felt here for the safety of the party. Friends in Toronto are making constant inquiries.

A BAD RABBI.

His Wife Asks for Divorce, Charging

ATLANTA, Ga., July 31.-The wife of Rabbi Jacobson is suing him for divorce. Dr. Jacobson is one of the foremost men in the church. His wife's charges are sensational. She charges, in effect, that the Rabbi is guilty of bigamy. At the time of her marriage to Jacobson she was worth between $10,000 and $12,000, chiefly in Athens real estate. Since her marriage he has refused to work, and has lived on the income from her estate. She alleges cruel treatment, and says that she separated from her husband on June 10, 1895. She alleges that Dr. Jacobson has a living wife, whom she knew was living, but who was represented to her by Dr. Jacobson as having been to-tally divorced. She not only asks a total divorce, but that their marriage contract be set aside as void on account of having been illegally executed and obtained by fraud.

GREAT PLACE FOR JONES.

Making Brandy Out of the Big Pench and Apple Crop in Missouri.

WEST PLAINS, Mo., July 31 .- Thousands of bushels of peaches and apples will be lost in this vicinity this season for want for means to take care of them, so great is the crop. Through the enterprise of the railroad companies and some of the leading growers great quantities of the fruit will be saved, however. Greatly reduced freight rates have been made and much of the fruit will be sent North, while some growers will manufacture their product into brandy, rather than to sell at a sacrifice. Already a carload of peaches has been sent to St. Paul.
There are 157,600 barrels of apples and peaches of a very fine quality in sight.

Whisky Trust's Fufile Struggle. CHICAGO, July 31.-The Whisky Trust litigation came up in the United States Court to-day, and the Greenhut-Morris faction was again defeated in an effort to postpone the sale of the Trust plants. Judge Seaman was notified this morning that an agreement had been made between the attorneys to argue a motion to have the de-cree which was entered by Judge Showalter regarding the sale of the property corrected. The motion was made by Judge Moran and Levy Mayer, on the part of stockholder Olmstead, who had part of the original stock. The object was to have the order of Judge Showalter modified, so that Olmstead could appeal, but the motion was denied by Judge Seaman, and the sale of the whisky properties will take place as ordered.

COWARDLY CONFESSION BY HOLMES ON HEARING OF THE MURDER.

Claims He Married Her and that She then Retired to a Convent, Where She Still Lives.

HARRY WALKER A VICTIM

REPORT THAT HOLMES GOT AWAY WITH A GREENSBURG MAN.

Convict Allen, of Little Rock, Holmes's Confidential Agent and Believed to Have Been "Hatch."

PHILADELPHIA, July 31.-H. H. Holmes was seen in his cell by a reporter to-day, and talked freely about the charges made against him, especially those relating to Emily Cigrand. He admitted that he had betrayed the girl in Chicago, and that she had afterward told this fact to a priest, who insisted that a marriage ceremony be performed. Holmes says that he took her to an obscure place in Minnesota and married her under an assumed name, the ceremony being fraudulent. Pat Quinlan, he declared, knew of Holmes's relation with the girl, having had her in his room one night when there was a fire near the 'castle." In May, 1892, the prisoner con-Quinlan, he asserted, knows all about her, and can produce her at any time. Holmes added that in justice to Quinlan and "Mascot" he desired to say that they knew little about his movements.

Harry Walker Missing.

CHICAGO, July 31 .- Harry Walker, of Greensburg, Ind., is now believed to have been a victim of Holmes. Walker, it is said, was induced by Holmes to have his life insured for $10,000 in Holmes's favor: He came to Chicago, and in November, 1893, wrote to friends that he was at work for Holmes. Suddenly his letters ceased, but search revealed no trace of him in

The Williams sisters were to-day traced by detectives through several boarding houses until in May, 1893, it was claimed, they lived with Mrs. Moss, 613 Sixty-fifth street. This Mrs. Moss denies, and says her boarder was Emeline Cigrand, who is said to have disappeared in December, 1893. Letter-carrier Mott says he delivered Minnie Williams's mail to her at that house, despite the assertion of Mrs. Moss. The letter-carrier is said to have been a friend of Minnie Williams, and the police will interview him.

ANOTHER HOLMES "CASTLE." His Fort Worth (Tex.) House Similar to the Chicago Death Trap. FT. WORTH, Tex., July 31. - William Capps, who is now in Chicago on the Holmes case, belongs to the firm of Capps & Canty, of this city, who some time ago instituted suit against the present holders of property owned by the Williams sisters. The suit is brought at the instance of the heirs of the girls, and it is claimed that the deeds were forged by Holmes. Allen, the Arkansas convict, who is now so anxious to tell his connection with the murders, was at one time in the employ of Holmes in this city. Allen went by the name of "Mascot" in this city, and it is believed here that he can teil a great deal about Holmes and his transactions if he wants to. Allen was an ex-convict from the prison at Joliet. While Holmes, or Pratt, as he was known here, was living in this city he started to put up a large building. It was objected to on the ground that it was a regular fire trap, and the authorities forced him to remodel it somewhat. In view of the recent developments in Chicago, the authorities have made an investigation of the building, which leaves no room for doubt that Holmes had planned it for a death trap. One room, at the top of the house, has twelve exits by which a person can escape, while an inclosed chute runs down to the basement of the building, in which a body could be transferred without anyone being the wiser. In this basement a large archway had been built over the sewer in such a way that he could easitly put in a trap door opening into the sewer. Under the floor of the house was found a large pit, the intended use of which can only be conjectured. Holmes probably intended this building to be used as he afterward used his house in Chicago.

THE MISSING "HATCH." It Is Undoubtedly the Arkansas Convict, but He Denies It. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 31 .- Governor Clarke has not yet I eard directly from the Illinois authorities as to the pardoning of convict Allen, who is said to possess valuable information in connection with the criminal career of H. H. Holmes, and to be willing to tell his story if immunity from punishment is promised him. At first the Governor seemed inclined to think Allen's story was an old ruse for securing liberty, but to-day he said: "If I am convinced that Allen can convict a man of murder who is guilty, and would otherwise go unpunished, I would be strongly Inclined to pardon him if requested to do so by the proper authorities."

Lawyer Capps is expected here to-morrow. When seen to-day by a reporter convict Allen said: "My name is not Hatch and I never at any time passed under that alias. My real name is Caldwell, but I have passed under the aliases of 'Allen, and 'Fogg,' and was known in Fort Worth often as 'Mascot,' but never used the name of 'Hatch.'
When reminded that he claimed to know all about the Fort Worth operations of Holmes, and that Hatch was prominent in them and asked to tell who Hatch was, he became somewhat confused and said that he thought that Holmes had working there a carpenter by that name who had a scar or mark on his right cheek. While uncertain as to his name, he clearly re-membered that Holmes raised the man's wages from $1.25 to $3.25 per day, and re-called various incidents about him. Later he stated that he thought there was a man Holmes's deals.

"I can unravel the Fort Worth swindle, said he, "if I am paid for it, and I can show that Minnie Williams was not murdered. I heard from her a few months ago, and she is afraid to come to this When reminded that turning State's evidence by Quinian might put him in a very bad plight and convict Holmes, he said with some excitement: "Quinlan shall never be allowed to have Hoimes hanged, for, of the two, Holmes is much more of a gentleman, and as for me, he does not know anything to cause me trouble. If he did, I would have left the country."

Allen seems much attached to Holmes, and says he will not testify against him in a criminal suit, because Holmes always treated him well. He says he can convince for a large money consideration. His present job in the penitentiary is not a hard one, and he says that a pardon would be no inducement unless he could also get some money out of it.

Notwithstanding his strong denials, it is probable that Allen and Haich are the same persons. The penitentiary several days ago persons. The penitentiary several days ago forwarded to lawyer Capps, at Chicago, a minute description of Allen, and he probably received that before deciding that Hatch was simply another alias. Allen could be easily identified, from the fact that he is blind in his left eye. Convict Allen persists in his assertion that Minnie Williams was alive six months ago, and in the belief that she is alive now, he did not meet Holmes in Arkansas, and his connection with him was confined to Fort Worth, Tex. He never wrote any letters to Holmes. Allen declares that the detectives from Chicago will get nothing for their trouble unless they are able to secure his release from the penitentiary. The only place at which Allen met Holmes, he says, was at Fort Worth, and he knows a great deal about his crookedness in that city. "When the authorities come to my terms I'll talk, and not before." This is all that Allen will say in regard to the case. Allen undoubtedly knows about Holmes's opera-

MYSTERIOUS COMPOUNDS.

Startling Revelations by an Expert Examination of Holmes's Tank. CHICAGO, July 31.-Experiments were made to-day with the liquid found in the bottom of the vat in the cellar of Holmes's house, and it was found that whenever mixed with benzine or kerosene it would emit a vapor so deadly that no human being could live in it. Whether or not Holmes used the vapor for suffocating his victims is not known, but the police are inclined to

The police discovered to-day the means by which the mark of a woman's foot became printed on the inside of the vault door. While examining the oil under the microscope the expert got some of the oil on his hand and later placed two of his | the robbers entered for the purpose of getfingers on an iron plate in the laboratory. I ting the money he received. However, they A short time afterwards he noticed that | found nothing but a certificate of deposit tinued, Miss Cigrand left his employ and it off were futile. A test for acid in Mr. Potter was bound with wire and his went into a convent, where she now is. the oil was then made, but without result in buggles and left in that way. The doors will clear away a good deal of surmise on the part of the police, as the theory advanced by the expert is that Holmes got a small quantity of this oil in a bowl, added either petroleum, benzine, gasoline or even common kerosene to it and placed it in the vault. A deadly gas would be given off im-mediately, and all Holmes had to do was to lure his victim into the trap and then shu the door. Death would soon result. The explanation of the foot print on the iron of the door is that one of the alleged victims in her struggles upset the bowl of oil and placed her foot in the liquid, which had run over the floor, and then in her struggles placed her foot against the door, leaving the tell-tale mark.

will be made to-morrow to see if the vapor given off by the liquids will burn, in order to see if the oil was a part of Holmes's gas naking machine. This was not done today, as it was feared that the vapor might be highly explosive, and precautions to pre-vent a catastrophe were taken. The police were to-day informed that at the time Holmes was first supposed to have left Chicago, he did not go any further away than the stock yards district, where he opened a restaurant under the name of H. H. Howard. He employed a number of women as waitresses and is said to have had a new force nearly every day. Among them were two girls who came from Wisconsin. A few nights after they began working the neighborhood was startled by female screams coming from the Howard restaurant. Several men ran the Howard restaurant. Several men ran to the building, and were in time to meet two girls as they ran out of the hallway leading into the house. They were clad only in their night clothes, and it was some minutes before they could be quieted sufficiently to tell their story. They said they had been sleeping together and had been awakened by a man who gained an entrance to their room, and who had placed wet cloth over their faces. They thought the cloths had been saturated with chloroform. Neighbors took the two girls in and form. Neighbors took the two girls in and cared for them, and before the police had an opportunity of arresting Howard, he disappeared. QUINLAN AND "MASCOT." They Were Both Confidential Agents of the Big Swindler. CHICAGO, July 31.-Another link in chain binding Quinlan to the alleged crimes of H. H. Holmes was forged today by an admission made by Quinlan when questioned by Chief of Police Badhad only one day's acquaintance with Alfor Fort Worth. Quinlan had previously lan's contradictory stories have placed him Pat Quinlan, under the questioning of Chief of Police Badenoch, let the cat out of the bag when he admitted that "Masin Fort Worth, Tex. "Mascot" is the man good enough for the fine work." From further questioning the police believe that the mysterious Hatch, A. E. Bond (through whom Minnie Williams's property in Fort Worth was conveyed to Benton T. Lyman), John C. Allen, A. C. Caldwell and "Mascot," who figure in different times and places in the Holmes case, are one and Holmes not long ago asserted that the man Hatch took the Pietzel children to Toronto in company of Minnie Williams, and that if he could be found he could clear up the mystery of their death. Detectives who are working up the case in the West have evidence that Hatch came West after the visit to Toronto and was caught stealing horses in Arkansas. The man confined in the Little Rock pentientiary claims to be able to give the history of Holmes's deeds from first to last, but insists that he be pardoned out first. Detective Rea, of Fort Worth, last night telegraphed that Allen is the much wanted "Mascot," and that he has given up some valuable information. By agreement between State's Attorney Kern, Mayor Swift, Chief Badenoch and attorney Capps, who represents the heirs of the missing Minnie Winiams, the latter will leave for Little Rock to-night with credentials and authority granting him the power to represent the State of Illinois in requesting the absolute and permanent release of Allen from the Arkansas peni-tentiary, such immunity being granted on condition that he fasten the crime of murder on Holmes by unmistakable and exist-ing evidence in this city. Within ten days, unless the present plans miscarry through some technicality or official disturbance, Allen will arrive in Chicago in custody of Attorney Capps and the proper officers of the law. Attorney Capps in an interview late last night, after his consultation with the chief of police, said: There is no question in my mind that this man Allen can tell about the murder of the Williams girls, Mrs. Conner and her daughter Pearl, by Holmes, and can direct us as to where the bones of these four at least are buried. As to the Cigrand girl and others, whose disappearance and death have been charged to holmes, I death have been charged to Holmes, I cannot say at this time. Alien was the confidant and associate of Holmes for a long time and we know enough of his knowledge of Holmes's affairs to safely count on his being able to tell the story of the crimes. We will prove absolutely that Holmes murdered the two Williamsgirls, Mrs. Conner and her daughter Pearl. We will bring Allen back to Chicago and he will tell the story of the murders as they were committed and point to the place where the bedies were disposed of after Holmes had performed these terrible deeds of murder."

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. UNION CITY, Ind., July 31.-One of the boldest robberies ever perpetrated in this section of the country occurred last night within a stone's throw of the city limits. The residence of David Potter, just northwest of the city limits, was the scene. Mr. Potter was aroused about 2 o'clock this morning by a loud crash. He jumped from his bed and was confronted by four men with red handkerchiefs over their faces. Mr. Potter was seized and bound, and his wife and son were similarly treated. Mr. Potter had taken a large quantity of wheat to town the day before, and it is supposed the marks of his fingers were distinctly | from one of the banks. The robbers left is at Large and Engaged, as Usual, in Destroying Property.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., July 31.-"Blinkey" Morgan, the half-witted boy, who escaped from the officers some months ago, is again in evidence. Tuesday morning the large sawmill of the lad's father at Cassville, north of here, was burned, and it is supposed that "Blinkey" applied the torch.

On the confession of burning six barns, trains, the boy was convicted two years ago, but was ordered sent to the asylum because of unsound mind. The stendent of that institution refused cept the boy, and he remained in jail here twenty months, and was then sent to the county farm, from which he made his escape the next day. The lad has since been at large, to the great alarm of the people. He did not appear here, however, until yesterday, when he was seen near his home. The boy undoubtedly fired the mill, as he has a determined mania for destroynig property. He has not yet been apprehended. The boy is a puzzle to the medical fraternity, they being unable to agree as to his mental conditions. His head is curiously formed, resembling a half skull, one side of the head being gone. He never attended school, yet he is a me chanic and draughtsman of surpassin skill, and can make old, worn-out farm machinery work successfully after being abandoned as worthless by the owners.

A YOUNG FORGER, Bilks a Bank for $659 and Has a Brief Big Time in Louisville.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NEW ALBANY, Ind., July 31.-Charles W. Motweiler, a seventeen-year-old boy, residing near Georgetown, west of this city, was arrested to-night, on a charge of passing forged checks on the First National Bank, in this city. Motweller presented four checks, purporting to have been signed by Maj. William Hancock, of Fredericksburg, who had a large deposit in this bank. The checks were for $15, $425, $178 and $41, respectively, and payable to Vincent Bracey. The money was paid to Motweller, who at once went to Louisville and began spending the money right and left. He had bought gold watches for several dissolute women and presented one-hundred-dollar bills to others, and had also deposited $300 in one of the banks. His actions aroused the sus-picions of officers, and he was arrested. He confessed his crime, and is now in jail. Motweiler, several days ago, wrote a let-Major Hancock's name. He said Motwelle would present the checks, and the official were easily thrown off their guard. All of the money was recovered except about $200, which Motweiler claims he gave to Madison merchants last week. Injunction Suit Compromised.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CONNERSVILLE, Ind., July 31.-The Connersville Gas and Electric Company has agreed to withdraw its injunction suit against the city, provided the Council will not contract to put in a municipal electric light plant. This compromise was effected through representatives of Farson, Leach & Co., of Chicago, buyers of Indiana municipal bonos. The injunction suit was brought by the electric company on the ground that the city had reached the limit of indebtedness allowed by law. The answer of the city was to the effect that the school city and the civil city were entirely separate and distinct corporations accord ing to the statutes. This question, how-ever, has never yet come before the Su-preme Court, and for this reason Farson, Leach & Co. were anxious to effect a compromise, fearing that litigation on the question might partially invalidate some of the bonds held by them. The same brosers also effected a compromise in the injunction suit against a municipal water works plant in Decatur county not long
